This is a further imitation of the Aldine Juvenal but cannot strictly be counted as a counterfeit edition as it is signed by its publisher and is in any case not a page-by-page reprint, occupying four fewer leaves than the Aldine edition. It appears to have been set from the fourth Aldine counterfeit (Juv084), judging by the presence of the Greek words and the word 'FINIS' at the end of the text (found only in the third and fourth Lyon counterfeits) and the setting of the letter on A1<sup>v</sup>.

As with the true Aldine editions, this edition seems to have been printed on a narrow median size of paper, making the copies particularly tall.
