K4^r Persii prologus; on L8^r 'Inuentus Chryſippe tui finitor acerui. | FINIS.'; In Prologo lege (4 lines); colophon; L8^v blank.

Typography: 77It; Greek; 120Rot on title page; 28 lines; 103(114) × 56 mm; signed $–$ iiii; quire catchwords; running titles: 'SATYRA || PRIMA.' (etc.); title page in red and black; initials.

Paper: Narrow median paper (estimated sheet size 39 × 34 cm), largest recorded page size: 13.5 × 8 cm (Harvard).
11 edition sheets.

A close reprint of Trot's edition of the previous year (Juv110).

The pages have a width-to-height ratio of 1 : 1.7, typical of the Aldine octavos and their imitators. The edition was presumably printed on narrow median paper (approximately 42 × 35 cm); the copy at Harvard gives a smaller sheet size than this and has presumably been cut down considerably in re-binding.
